EDITOR BULLETIN:—

"Churchman" in this morning's P. C. A. indulges in what seems to be an unchristian remark against the Bishop of Honolulu, in styling His Lordship as the "Rev. Dictator." In regard to the proceeds of the fair which was held last November, Minister Churchman knows very well that the Bishop has nothing to do with the application of the proceeds. He knows too that the object of the fair was fully understood beforehand to be for an iron fence around the cathedral precinct. It is not for the Bishop to carry out that object, but for the patrons themselves through their representative the treasurer acting in conjunction with the cathedral authorities. If we must have a little more lighting in church, let us find the means and stop calling names. Such is the view of another

CHURCHMAN.

The American League.

Proceedings were more than usually lively at the meeting of the American League last night, the occasion being the nomination of officers for the ensuing year. The following were nominated but it was resolved to allow further names to be added up to next Friday:

President—T.B. Murray, Waity.
First Vice-President, J. N. Wright; Second Vice-President, Allen Clark; Recording Secretary, M. H. Drummond.

Treasurer—J. J. Sullivan, Geo. Hawkins, Capt. Black.
Trustees—J. Delaney, C. Crabbe.

Tourists.

JUNE 5th, 1895.

It is the object of all good citizens to draw as many tourists to the country as possible. The people who travel for pleasure are, as a rule, well supplied with money, and wherever they go they leave money behind. All classes benefit the more money is set in circulation. But to get tourists here, it is necessary to hold out inducements to them. They must know that they can get first class accommodation, and that they will find a first class table. A good table can be set in every hotel, boarding house and private house if those in charge know what and where to buy. I can recommend choice block butter which I receive by every Australia. It is of an excellent and uniform quality from one creamery. Fresh island butter I get by every W.G. Hall. I can also recommend superior family hams, and I always keep a full assortment of everything in the grocery line. My prices are as low as the lowest, and island orders are promptly attended to.

HOPP & CO.,

No 74 King Street,

Honolulu, H. I.

IT HAS BEEN REMARKED

by visitors that for variety of goods, quality and style, the shops of Honolulu compare favorably with those in the largest cities in the United States. These remarks are not strange to us because we are familiar with the needs of the people, we know that their tastes are the same as other people, though they are to a degree isolated from the rest of the world. But they are a reading people and they are apt scholars; they have the same amount of ability to copy the ideas of others or create new ones as the ladies of New York or Boston. To cater to the tastes of the different people here requires tact, ability and coin; in the selection of goods, both as to design, quality and price, all of the business qualifications of man are brought into play.

If we did not exercise it in our corner of the mercantile world how could we offer all shades of genuine woolen goods, not shoddy, but woolen at fifty cents a yard, when every other dealer in Honolulu sells the identical goods for seventy-five cents and a dollar. Nor do we confine ourselves to a single shade—we have them in endless variety.

The same may be said of our stock of all-wool flannels. Who ever heard of them going for less than fifty cents a yard. They bring that because they are worth it to any one who wants them, but we let them go to you at thirty-five cents a yard, or three yards for a dollar. You can't realize it but we can prove it to you as easy as we can show you the largest and handsomest collection of white goods of every description ever shown in Honolulu.

A drive in shoes interests every one—our stock includes all sorts and conditions for men, women and children, and to go with the shoes we have a wonderful collection of hosiery for ladies.
